

Different Christian Views on Salvation & Grace

Worksheet

Key Facts

One of the disagreements that arose at the time of the Reformation was about what is needed for salvation.

Salvation by faith - Protestants

- Some Protestants believe that no matter what good work people do, salvation comes from faith alone.
- They quote Paul's letter to the , in which he says that it is by grace that people are saved, through faith, and not by their own actions. (Ephesians 2: 8 - 10)
- 'If you declare with your mouth, "..... is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For it is with your heart that you believe and are, and it is with your mouth that you profess your and are saved.' (Romans 10 : 9-10)

Faith and good work - Catholics

- Roman Catholics believe that faith must be accompanied by good work.
- They refer to 's letter to the, in which he says that God will treat people as their actions deserve. (Romans 2: 5-7)

Key Questions

In what period of history did Christians first disagree about what is needed for salvation?
Which type of Christian believes that faith must be accompanied by good works?
According to Protestants, if someone did only good deeds throughout their whole life, but did not believe in God and Jesus, would they go to heaven?

Scan me to study
online!

Different Christian Views on Salvation & Grace

Worksheet

Key Facts

One of the disagreements that arose at the time of the Reformation was about what is needed for salvation.

Salvation by faith - Protestants

- Some Protestants believe that no matter what good work people do, salvation comes from faith alone.
- They quote Paul's letter to the Ephesians, in which he says that it is by grace that people are saved, through faith, and not by their own actions. (Ephesians 2: 8 - 10)
- 'If you declare with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you profess your faith and are saved.' (Romans 10 : 9-10)

Faith and good work - Catholics

- Roman Catholics believe that faith must be accompanied by good work.
- They refer to Paul's letter to the Romans in which he says that God will treat people as their actions deserve. (Romans 2: 5-7)

Key Questions

In what period of history did Christians first disagree about what is needed for salvation?	The Reformation (early modern period).
Which type of Christian believes that faith must be accompanied by good works?	Roman Catholics
According to Protestants, if someone did only good deeds throughout their whole life, but did not believe in God and Jesus, would they go to heaven?	No

Scan me to study
online!